Judeus E A Vida Econômica, Os (Portuguese Edition) By Werner Sombart

Em meio a um acelerado avanço tecnológico, o mundo capitalista se viu às voltas, no final do século XX, com uma variedade de males que acreditava haver erradicado: desemprego, depressões cíclicas, população indigente em meio a um luxo abundante e o Estado em crise. As próprias revoluções tecnológicas nas áreas do átomo, da informação e da genética se desenvolvem num estado de vazio ético no qual as referências tradicionais desaparecem. Um claro paradoxo se instala nas sociedades pós-modernas: ao mesmo tempo que se libertam das amarras dos valores de referência, a demanda por ética e preceitos morais parece crescer indefinidamente. O economista Gilberto Dupas busca, neste livro, em 2ª edição revista e ampliada pelo autor, uma ética para os novos tempos capaz de introduzir o dever onde tudo é poder. E pergunta-se como o Estado poderia recuperar sua condição de efetivo representante da vontade da sociedade civil.
