Legends Of Belize: A Series About Mythical Creatures That Dwell In The Jungles And Waters Of Belize By Dismas, GrissyG

In Belize, Central America there are terrifying stories about strange creatures such as the jungle gnome called Tata Duende who has backwards feet, rips thumbs off, and has magical powers or the beautiful but deadly seductress named Xtabai who steals souls and shapeshifts into animals, people, and even someone you know. Stories of these creatures and many more are so terrifying, they are past down from generation to generation as folklore and legends. The ancient legends are captured, documented, and preserved by Belizean Artists and Animators, GrissyG and Dismas, in a comprehensive series and book with images of fine Art, information about the creatures, a compare and contrast of the Belizean myths with other myths across the world, descriptions of the Art process, and Belizean cultural iconography that inspired the series. Discover the cryptozoological, paranormal, supernatural, and unexplained creatures that are believed to haunt Belize. Be fascinated, be terrified, Belize.

Editorial Review

Review

"This is great stuff that is being done to preserve these parts of our history that is so important and vital for us."

-Rene Villanueva Sr., Radio and TV Journalist in Belize- Boogeymen TV series, Episode 213-Tata Duende

"This latest presentation of Belize legends, myths, stories just proves how firmly they have remained in our universal psyche. What GrissyG and Dismas have done is to use the backgrounds to pinpoint the specific locations in Belize and that is so unique. This is a wonderful addition to our very limited collection of Belize-oriented literature."

-Araceli "Lita" Hunter Krohn, Belizean Educator and Historian

"I liked how you said one purpose for the existence of these characters is to make young and old more careful of how they live their lives and help them avoid troubles and horrors befalling them. In that way the tales are similar to our nursery rhymes. Your research seemed thorough and painted a picture of the mysterious and somewhat dark side of Belize's culture. Good work."

-Tom Tenowich, Writer/Producer of TV Series "Saved by the Bell" and "Mork & Mindy"

"Not only are the images amazing, the book serves as an invaluable reference source for Belizean Folklore."

-Debra Wilkes, Coordinator of Corozal House of Culture, National Institute of Culture and History, Belize

"It is a fine piece of work and very interesting. It is colorful also...Thanks for letting the world know about our culture through the internet."

-Judith Waldman, Elementary Teacher and Principal in Belize

"This is a most enlightening book of legends...a wonderful collaboration of art & narrative! Looking into an excursion to Belize."

-Kay Fields, Realtor at Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices, California

About the Author

GrissyG and Dismas, artists, animators, and authors, born in Corozal Town, Belize, Central America, moved to sunny California to fulfill their dream to be artists. In 1999 they met at Los Angeles Mission College where they attended and graduated with an Associates degree in Art and Multimedia.

In 2003, GrissyG and Dismas, established GrisDismation, a signature to represent their collaborative work to produce Art, animation and books. In 2004 they married and continued their creative career in Art. Together as GrisDismation they produced a commercial for Archie Comics, an animated music video with Award winning Producer Garth Bacon, and storyboards/animatic for Award winning producer/director/filmmaker Dawn Westlake, plus many other projects. Always motivated to expand their avenues of Art, GrissyG and Dismas stepped into their first acting role in the film "Scrappy" produced by Dawn Westlake filmed in September 2016.

GrisDismation has produced series of paintings and over 20 short animations that have screened regularly at Hollywood Shorts in Los Angeles. They have also authored two books, "Legends of Belize Creature Book" and "Legends of Belize, A Series About Mythical Creatures That Dwell In The Jungles And Waters Of Belize." They have presented at Universities and schools in California and in Belize, been featured in the news, newspapers, on the radio and TV. Experts in the field of Belizean mythology, in 2015, GrissyG and Dismas were special guests in a documentary titled "Boogeymen, Tata Duende," about the Belizean mythical jungle gnome, produced by CMJ production II Inc. for the Travel andEscape channel. To continue document and expand on the Legends of Belize Art series and books, they are also currently producing an animated feature about the Legendary Tata Duende based on Belizean culture and mythology.
