Editorial Review

From School Library Journal

Gr 9 Up—This solid anthology brings together high quality fiction from some of the best young adult writers in the field. All of the 14 entries were inspired by horror stories drawn from literature, television, film, and music, creating a unique spin on classic tales of terror (and at the end of each story, the writer indicates the source of their inspiration). Selected by the author of Between the Devil and the Deep Blue Sea (Dial, 2013) and its sequel, these chilling tales are full of suspense and dread that will haunt readers long after the last page has been turned. The diversity of content and the variety of writing styles makes this collection a top choice for fans of horror and supernatural. Many of these stories could easily be expanded into a novel; most noteworthy are "Hide-and-Seek" by Megan Shepard, "Stitches" by A. G. Howard, "Verse Chorus Verse" by Leigh Bardugo, "Sleepless" by Jay Kristoff, and "The Dark, Scary Parts and All" by Danielle Paige. VERDICT Worth checking out, but not for the faint of heart.—Donna Rosenblum, Floral Park Memorial High School, NY

Review

Praise for Slasher Girls & Monster Boys:

A YALSA Quick Pick for Reluctant Readers

"If your idea of an excellent summer night is telling ghost stories around the campfire, you'll be jumping for (horrific) joy over Slasher Girls & Monster Boys."—Bustle

"Terrifying and new . . . There's nary a clunker in the collection—this is satisfying, disturbing horror for the modern YA audience." —Publishers Weekly

"Murderous neighbors, creepy bathtubs, and lots of blood . . . Full of thrills and chills [and] gross, creepy fun." —Kirkus Reviews

"This killer collection will satisfy any thriller junkie."—Booklist Online

"Satisfyingly diverse and compelling. . . . The majority of the protagonists are female [but] not one is a helpless victim. Many contributors subvert and complicate the roles of protagonist and antagonist, keeping readers on their toes . . . After encountering the horrors here, variously supernatural and disturbingly human, readers may want to leave the lights on."—The Horn Book

"Will scare, thrill, and terrify."—VOYA

"A ton of terrifying mini thrillers that take inspiration from classic stories. There's a bit of supernatural in here, some gore-filled-horror, terrifying creatures . . . something for everybody."—Book Riot
