Armageddon, Texas (The Messiah Trilogy) Tommy Zurhellen

Renowned storyteller Tommy Zurhellen breaks new ground as he weaves two ancient tales: the biblical account of Genesis and the medieval pagan poem, Beowulf, into a "cataclysmic world filled with Sam Cooke lyrics, The Wizard of Oz, fire-breathing dragons, George Strait's exes, and bourbon in a sippy cup."

Armageddon, Texas, the third volume in The Messiah Trilogy, is a post-apocalyptic comical creation so infectious it will tickle your funny bone and make you second-guess your command of the English language!

Delve into an inspired romp through the pages of mythology, scripture, and classic literature, and experience a finale that upends the whole idea of reading books in sequence.

See why Zurhellen has been dubbed "the crown prince of zany and the prime minister of zip."

And see why Publishers Weekly lauded Books 1 and 2:

Nazareth, North Dakota: "masterful dialogue"

Apostle Islands: "both universally timeless and contemporary . . . If Jesus needs new PR, this is one imaginative possibility."

"One hell of a read." -- The Summerset Review

"Such a gorgeous, inventive, surprising work € it's the third of a series, but it's so much fun to read as a stand-alone too." -- Adriann Ranta, senior agent, Wolf Literary Services

"A cataclysmic world vertiginous with Sam Cooke lyrics, The Wizard of Oz, fire-breathing dragons, George Strait's exes, and much-needed bourbon. Delve in and be fire-struck by Zurhellen's wit and wonder in the world of Armageddon where there is only one kid and one dog: "Kid and Dog. The world's first detectives." Enter the mystery and in the words of Kid, "Sam be with you!" -- Simone Muench, author of Wolf Centos

"Resurrect in prose as deft and convincing as the Revelation according to St. John." -- Virginia Konchan, author of Vox Populiooo

Tommy Zurhellen was born in New York City. He is the two-time award-winning author of The Messiah Trilogy and currently teaches writing at Marist College in upstate New York. He also is co-host of the podcast Fiction School.
