Editorial Review

Review

Many will surely welcome this new access to the Dutch authors whose strong writings put faith and certainty into the generations of their fellow countrymen. By their closeness to Scripture and their concern for heart and head (heart and light), they remain of enduring value. --Iain H. Murray, author of The Puritan Hope

I am delighted that the Dutch Reformed Translation Society is at last making the material available in the English language. It is a landmark feature of our Reformed heritage, and it is rich food for the soul in this or any other age. --J.I. Packer, Regent College
