The Church of the East: Apostolic & Orthodox By Mar Bawai Soro

"This extraordinary well-written and exciting book is a thorough and systematic exploration of the spread of early Mesopotamian Christianity and its disputed theology undertaken by a leader of the Church of the East. It is an important historical and patristic study for the self-understanding of the Assyrian Church today. Mar Bawai Soro's scholarship is tightly reasoned and marked by the utmost clarity. Being truthful to the tradition of his Church, the research of Mar Bawai significantly contributes not only to ecumenical encounter but also leads to a better mutual understanding of Fathers, Councils, and Theologies within their respective historical and cultural contexts." (Prof. Dietmar W. Winkler, Chair of the Department of Biblical Studies and Ecclesiastical History, University of Salzburg)

Editorial Review

About the Author

Bishop Mar Bawai Soro, an Assyrian Catholic bishop and ecumenist whose passion and life's work have been aimed at the attainment of Christ's prayer for the unity of the Church - "that they may be one" (John 17:21). Born in Iraq, in 1954, his vocation began in Baghdad, as deacon (1973) and later ordained to the priesthood (1982) and episcopacy (1984) in Chicago. He represented the Assyrian Church of the East from 1982-2005, including the dialogue with the Catholic Church, during which time the signing of the "Common Christological Declaration" became a landmark event, ending theological isolation of this Church for 15 centuries. Bishop Soro is considered by many officials "among the architects of the dialogue with the Catholic Church – contributing significantly to its successful progress". Author of numerous papers on the Church of the East's theology and history, he is a leading figure in many ecumenical inter-church forums, including the Pro Oriente Foundation (Syriac Commission).
