Deadly Road By Tara Neidoffer

What happens when the dead seek their revenge? After a night out with friends turns bad, Lizzie drives home upset, exhausted, and a little tipsy. She ends up making a terrible mistake that leaves her with a dark, disturbing secret. She is traumatized by what she's done and desperately wants to find a way to make amends with her wrong doing. She soon becomes surrounded by an evil she never knew could exist, and finds help from a dying woman in hospice. This series of events make her realize that everything in life happens for a reason, and sometimes you have to search the darkness for the answers.

Editorial Review

From the Author

If you enjoy reading about ghosts, you might also like my new release, When the Dead Whisper. It is book one in the Mia Rushton series and is a paranormal mystery with romance.

About the Author

Tara Neideffer was born and raised in Indiana with a love for animals, especially horses. As a child she could always be found in the saddle, running her horse at full speed through open fields. She also has a love of ghost stories and a morbid fascination with watching murder mystery shows. When she's not busy writing, she's taking care of her animals, spending time with her family or reading. She still lives in Indiana with her husband, daughter and stepson on twenty acres, with too many animals to name.
