Ivy League Admission: 100 Successful Medical School Personal Statements

By Dr. Nancy L. Nolan

This book offers an amazing collection of 100 successful personal statements for medical school admission. The essays are grouped into 20 different categories, which show the dozens of topics, approaches and writing styles that successful applicants have used to gain admission into top US medical schools. The book also includes numerous examples of personal statements that explain extenuating circumstances in a candidate's academic history, such as a disappointing GPA and MCAT score. By sharing these essays, the editor, an Ivy League admissions expert, offers the most comprehensive resource available to current applicants. Competition is fierce at top medical schools, where an exceptional personal statement is mandatory. Before you tackle your own essay, check this intriguing one-of-a-kind collection.
