The Spiritual Combat: and a Treatise on Peace of Soul (Tan Classics) By Lorenzo Scupoli

Salvation and spiritual perfection should not be sought haphazardly; a strategy is needed to win the battle for our souls.

The Spiritual Combat, first published in 1589, provides timeless guidance in spiritual discipline. St. Francis de Sales (1576-1622) read from it himself every day and recommended it to everyone under his direction.

Vigorous, realistic and full of keen insight into human nature, The Spiritual Combat consists of short chapters based on the maxim that in the spiritual life one must either "fight or die". Fr. Scupoli shows the Christian how to combat his passions and vices, especially impurity and sloth, in order to arrive at victory.

This is the original TAN edition now with updated typesetting, fresh new cover, new size and quality binding, and the same trusted content.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Dom Lorenzo Scupoli was born in Otranto, Italy in 1530 and died in Naples in 1610. Nothing is known about his early life. At about the age of 40, he entered the Theatines and made his novitiate under St. Andrew Avellino. He was ordained in 1577. It is said that he met St. Francis de Sales in Padua between 1589 and 1591 and gave him a copy of The Spiritual Combat. For some reason that has never been revealed, he was laicized in 1585 and lived in retirement in Theatine houses until his death. Some sources say that his name was cleared at the end of his life, though he offered no defense of himself. The first edition of The Spiritual Combat bearing Scupoli's name was published in the year of his death 1610.

Raymond Murray:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart or real their interest. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Spiritual Combat: and a Treatise on Peace of Soul (Tan Classics) can make you really feel more interested to read.
