Editorial Review

Review

5 out of 5 stars, - This is a wonderful book for children and for children of all ages. --JazmaOnline.com

The Very Frustrated Monster reminds me of the old Serendipity books ... I consider these books classics, and it is a compliment to Andi Green that her story has evoked the comparison. --Sequentialart.com

As with all of the WorryWoos books, the story teaches a great lesson about emotions and how to handle them. It s great for teaching social skills. And the illustrations are beautiful. They are the same high quality I have come to expect from Andi Green s books. She is able to take emotions that can be difficult for children to understand and bring them to life. She makes emotions easier to relate to by giving them life. The WorryWoos are great for kids of all ages and ability levels.

The stories are short and simple enough to be enjoyed by younger kids. But the subject matter is important enough to be relevant for older kids as well. Oh, and Twitch is absolutely adorable! He has great colors and is definitely recognizable in both hand drawn and plush version! So if you re looking for a unique gift idea, I definitely recommend checking out the WorryWoos! Andi Green offers a great variety in her monster friends so you can find something for all of the little ones in your life --FormulaMom.com
